

Escape the Olympics...

SAVE £1,449 JAMMING IN JAMAICA
THIS Caribbean island knows how to party — especially on Independence Day, when the country comes alive with song, arts, literary and culinary offerings, parades and street dances.

Stay ten nights for the price of seven at The Half Moon resort with 400 acres of whitewashed cottages and landscaped garden. There is also a beach, spa, golf course and equestrian centre. The trip costs £2,329pp including return flights and transfers for departures on August 6, (020 7838 5892, wexas.com).

Pictures: Alamy

SAVE £2,540 ODYSSEY IN OMAN
SOAK up the dramatic mountains and sandy beaches at Zighy Bay on the northern Musandam peninsula. This Six Senses resort, styled like a traditional Omani village, boasts a private marina, spa, and even a Souk for retail therapy.

There are fjords to admire, dhow cruises and a range of activities to test your sporting prowess. Stay five nights' half-board from £3,999 per family (two adults and two children under 12), including return flights, transfers and a saving of up to £2,540. Valid until September 30, including Olympic period (020 7751 0880, thepriateltravelcompany.co.uk).

SAVE £105pp SWEEP INTO SWEDEN
PUT your best foot forward and head to trendy Stockholm. The Swedish capital is bursting with clothes shops and design stores, restaurants and fascinating museums. And if city life gets too much, catch a boat to explore the beautiful archipelago.

Stay three nights' B&B for the price of two at the five-star Nobis Hotel housed in two converted 19th-century buildings with views across the city. The trip costs from £409pp, a saving of £105pp, and includes return flights. Valid from August 3 (0844 493 0758, ba.com).